

A STORY ABOUT ME

This is designed to be a story to your peers and the special people in your “Support Circle” that you have invited. The format below is a guideline for you as you prepare your five-minute talk. You may bring objects/materials from the program that you have completed during the course of the program to illustrate what you have learned. You may want to make something (such as a poster or a drawing) to illustrate what you have learned. This is your chance to tell about yourself, so design it in whatever way best describes you and what you have learned.

- I would like to introduce myself: (your name)

- The goal I set for myself the first day of the program was:

- My plans for next year are: (Tell what school you will go to, what year in school you will be, if not in school, what type of work you will do, where, etc.)

- During this program, I have learned that my strongest learning style is:

- I have learned through my career searches in the program that my highest interest area(s) is (are):

- The career(s) I am most interested in right now is (are): (Explain why you are interested in the career based on what you have learned about your learning style and your interest searches.)

- I know that I can get the most help in planning my future from: (Name specific people like family, teachers, or counselors)
- What's most important to me in life right now is: (Be honest if it is a certain person or school or children and explain how they are part of your decision-making.)
- The most important person (people) in my life and in my community is (are): (Explain who and why.)
- After this program, I plan to use what I have learned about myself in the following way(s):
- What I learned about myself in this program is:
- The most important part of this program for me was:
- Other comments you want to add:
- Notes to yourself about your presentation:
- Materials you will bring or use in your presentation:
